FLUORIDATION PLAN DISCUSSED

Most Local Pupils In On Insurance . . .

At a well attended meeting of the Didsbury Home and School Association, held in the school auditorium on Monday evening, the group went on record as approving a plan whereby those children wishing to could receive fluoridation treatment. This does not, however, mean that the plan will be made available.

The students' insurance plan proved very popular — out of a total enrollment of 562 pupils, 448 have now taken on the November 11 coverage.

The regional conference will be held in the local school auditorium on November 30 and a committee has been named and plans indicate it will be a very successful event. A welcome is extended to any who might wish to attend.

Mrs. L. Eby was named as the designate to speak at the meeting to be held on October 21 to 24.

The next meeting will be held on November 18, one week later than usual due to the November 11 holiday.

No Time To Write ???

I have no time to write a poem this week.
As I have to fix a kitchen roof that leaks;
And patch up the old hen house door;
Or those old biddies won't lay anymore.

I'll have to put back the wood in the barn,
To keep the dogs cozy and warm;
The bull corral poles are all askew,
I have to replace them with something new.

I'll have to fix the root cellar door,
The root cellar has sagged right down to the floor;
And fix the garden fence before it's too late;
Nail some more leather hinges on the garden gate.

I haven't a button on gold darn thing;
Even my pants are held up with string;
My toes are sticking right out of my socks
And there's not a stock of wood in the old wood box.

The old sow has made her bed by the kitchen door;
She's got a rock on her house anymore;
The drain is plugged up from the kitchen sink;
So I just haven't got time this week to think.

So I had better hitch up my pants with a jerk.
If I am hoping to get done all this work;
Then I might get time to write something next week;
If I don't get crowded and my head starts to leak.

(Signed: E. COOMBES)

PORTABLE X-RAYS

Doctors and industrial scientists may soon be able to buy X-ray equipment that they can carry with them. Going into production is a unit so small that it will fit in a brief case. It is powered with strontium 90.

Don't Give Fire A Place To Get Started . . .

Instruct your family on what to do in case of fire. Have a family conference on the subject. Encourage adult members of your family to always keep matches and lighters out of the reach of children. Keep flammable liquids in metal containers and on high shelves or in locked cupboards and closets.

Don't teach your children to be careless by your own experience. Set a good example for them to follow.

Advise your wife if you have a coal furnace. Don't load it with coal before going to bed. Make sure it is properly banked for the night. Show her how to do it, for when you are away for an evening or on a trip, it will probably be her job.

Warn the mother of your children not to tamper with faulty wiring or household appliances, such as toasters, kettles or other equipment using electricity. An electric iron is always within reach of the telephone.

Caution children to keep away from the stove when the burners are on. It is so easy for a sleeve to slip and touch a red-hot burner. Playing with matches is taboo. Don't allow children to tinker with any electrical appliance or play with firecrackers. A nasty burn, sometimes serious, can result. Let Dad light the firecrackers.

Bonfires are nice but they also take time and effort. On family outings let an adult supervise the bonfire. And keep children a proper distance. Don't let them throw any old thing they find on a bonfire. It may be an empty gasoline container.

All Canada has been horrified by the number of child victims of fire each year. Every winter takes its toll. Never leave your children alone at home. Have an adult who is aware of fire hazards stay with them.

Family co-operation is vital in preventing fires. Sure you are busy but just take a little time out to hold a family discussion on fire safety. You will be glad you did. Don't ever think that a fire tragedy can't happen to you. It will if you are careless.

SPRINGSIDE NOTES

(From Our Own Correspondent)

There were eight ladies present at the last meeting of the Springside Ladies' Group, held at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Chandler. Two contests were held, the winner of the first being Mrs. Lawrence Chandler; the second being Mrs. Verne Wrigglesworth. Mrs. Bill Collinge won the hostess prize.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Taylor and family, of Acme, were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Collinge.

THE LOCAL NEWSPAPER MAINTAINS ITS INFLUENCE

- How often a successful executive, far from his small-town birthplace — maintains his contacts through regular receipt of his weekly newspaper.
- There is nothing quite like a small town weekly for neighborly news and intimate contacts.
- People in the advertising business talk about selected audiences — sharply focused circulation. They have learned from experience that when a publication is specially edited to appeal to the specific interests of a smaller group of people, its opportunities to make sales are multiplied many times over.
- The weekly newspaper is that kind of publication. Whether its circulation is a few hundred or a few thousand, it represents effective circulation.
- Gather the towns-people and farm folk around you when you advertise. Surround yourself with friendly neighbors — deliver your advertising message through your local weekly newspaper.

The many, many people who mortgaged the house, sold papers on street corners or raised the hay from some other method to buy a TV set when the modern "magic" instruments came on the market, were paid off in spades at the weekend (if they are sport fans — who isn't when the "world serious" is on deck). Watching the games from an easy chair (the only thing lacking was a peanut vendor) we came away with the quote so often heard: "Wonders will never cease." When they hit the ball in Milwaukee (more than a country mile from here) we can see it and hear it within seconds of the time the fans in the stands check the play over. For our money that's a lotta miles for a baseball to travel in such a short time.

The road crew was working; the curbing crew had things under control; but then the weatherman stepped into the picture with more snow than we'd care to shovel (we shoveled enough of the other stuff). However, there is going to be a parking lot close to our business home and it's pleasing to see many of the all-day cars parked there. One fella got stuck in the new layout the other day but that's incidental. Wonder who it was? You're right!

Notes From D.O.A.

By Howard J. Fisher

There are nine 4H clubs in this area, the total membership being approximately 125 boys, girls and boys. Of these nine clubs five have beef feeding as their project, three are in the dairy project and one has a grain project.

The objectives of 4H club work are firstly rural education and secondly training in citizenship with the development of character and leadership. The other objective is experience and knowledge in the particular project that is being taken. In this the members acquire a better understanding of the beef, dairy or grain production, they learn management, care, feeding and selection by practicing it themselves under leader guidance.

In the beef clubs members obtain a feeder calf in the fall and care, feed and train this calf for a show and sale in the following summer. In doing this, however, usually the calf is not sold but returned to the farm. The calf should be of fairly good quality but need not to be a high priced top quality animal. In the grain clubs the members start with seed in the spring, growing a grain plot and showing a sample at a fall achievement day.

Any one interested in joining any of the clubs should contact the leaders in their respective areas. The men do the best to keep the work going, they are as follows: Ion Dairy, A. Craig; Cartairs-Didsbury Dairy, W. Spicer; Cartairs Beef, H. Schielle; Cremona Beef, V. Reid; East Didsbury Beef, A. E. Brander; West Didsbury Beef, J. Hughes; Olds Beef, L. S. Fisher; Cartairs Grains, E. Fox.

The live stock clubs will be reorganized very shortly for the coming season. Club work is interesting and educational to those who take part; the calf or the grain will be gone in time but the knowledge gained will last forever.

SPRING SONG (New Lyrics)

The teen-age girl, after two lessons from the driving school, took her father out for a spin in the family car.

"Oh, daddy," she trilled: Doesn't speeding over hill and dale make you glad you're still alive?"

"Glad? I'm amazed!"

THE COST-PRICE SQUEEZE IS ON

The extent of the cost-price squeeze on prairie farmers is well illustrated by figures of the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. Since 1949 the price of farm commodities has gone down very substantially while on the other hand the costs of goods and services required to carry out farming operations have continued to increase.

In 1949 the index of Alberta farm products was plotted at 256.6; in July of this year 213 (1935-39 equal 100). This represents a decline of 20 per cent in the past eight years. In the same period the index of farm costs rose from around 206 to 256, or an increase of 25 per cent. Thus farm costs are down 20 per cent and operating costs up 25 per cent.

Homemakers:-

Here's that recipe I promised you last week for using up those green tomatoes. Green Tomato Mince meat

3 lbs green tomatoes

2 lbs apples, chopped

2 lbs brown sugar

1 lb. seeded raisins

1 lb. seedless raisins

2 tbsp. salt

1 1/2 cups vinegar

1 tbsp. cinnamon

1 dozen cloves (ground)

1 dozen nutmeg

Juice of 2 lemons

1 Cup suet (omitted if storing long time):

Method: Wash tomatoes and remove stem and blossom ends. Chop or put through food chopper. Allow to boil for 5 minutes. Drain thoroughly. Add, core and chop apples. Add to tomatoes and mix well. Add sugar, if desired. If not sweet, add more sugar.

Boil for 10 minutes.

Turn into a greased 9x13x2 in.

baking dish. Sprinkle with sugar and cinnamon. Cover and bake in hot oven (400°) for 30-45 minutes. Let cool and store in refrigerator. Yield: 5 pints.

Suet is omitted if the mince meat is to be stored any length of time.

Butter can be added to replace it when pie is made.

The fall season brings a host of hunters out to every slough and pond in the country. If your husband has a bagged a few beauties, here are some suggestions:

For roasting duck or goose try:

1. Red currant jelly dissolved in water.

2. For two ducks this following mixture:

1 cup catup

1/2 cup Worcestershire sauce

1/2 cup chili sauce

Garnish with orange slices and parsley

3. Apricot glaze: in a saucier combine 1/4 cup apricot jam, 1/4 cup hot milk to the beaten eggs

and add to dry mixture. (Will do

two ducks of about 2 1/2 lbs. each.)

4. Apple Butter Frosting

1/2 pound dried prunes

2 tablespoons seeded raisins

2 tablespoons cracker crumbs

1/8 teaspoon salt

1/4 teaspoon sugar

1 egg yolk beaten

1 large apple (sliced)

Pour boiling water over prunes

and raisins and soak 24 hours.

Add crumbs, seasoning and egg. Add apple. Makes 2 cups.

Fabric Dressing

Have you a silk, rayon or lace dress that is limp and unattractive?

The finish can be improved by dipping it in a gum arabic solution. First make this: Concentrated Gum Arabic Solution: 1 oz. of gum arabic dissolved in cold water. Method: Crush crystals in enamel pot; add cold water; heat until dissolved. A little borax added preserves the mixture.

To stiffen any article simply dilute the concentrated solution: one part to 5/10th parts hot water; depending on the stiffness desired. Dip your article into the hot solution.

SHORT SUPPLY

A restaurant boasted the largest variety of sandwiches on earth:

"If we can't give you the sandwich you order," bragged a huge sign.

"Well, we can't," said the manager.

"You win," said the manager.

"For the first time, we have to pay off. We're out of rye bread."

Farm Wife-Women
Of Many Parts

The farmer's wife is in a partnership that is literally the "grass roots" of Canadian life says sociologist Helen Abel.

- She may weed a garden, look after milking equipment, hens and eggs and still contend that she doesn't do much "farm work." But the farm wife is, and always has been, more than a housewife. Dr.

Abell said in an interview.

A rural sociologist with the agricultural department's economic division, Dr. Abell says that indications are that more farm wives are also doing a major share of farm accounting and bookkeeping.

Dr. Abell, with an eye to defining the "woman's touch" in Canadian farm work and showing her effect on farm business, analyzed data from two mixed farming areas in Central Alberta.

These women all lived on the type of mixed farms which could be found anywhere in Canada.

The information compiled from the Central Alberta farms mainly handed down from the parents of the farm wives.

Dr. Abell found the volume of farm production was greater on farms operated by married men than on other farms. Production was lowest where there were no adult women living on the farm.

In effect, more farm work was done and handled by a larger working force on farms where there were women - particularly when the women were wives of farm operators - than on farms operated by men alone.

The information compiled from

the Central Alberta farms mainly

handed down from the parents of the farm wives.

Much more important was the growing realization of the part

Canadian farm women played as partners with their husbands in the total agriculture picture in planning and working for satisfying and successful farm and family units.

Wild game birds are generally not stuffed for roasting as the fat is strong (especially in geese)

but sliced apple, onion or celery tops are sometimes used and then discarded.

Though you probably have a stuffing recipe that is your favorite, here are two you might try for wild duck:

1. 4 cups soft bread crumbs

1 cup onion, diced

1 cup bacon nuts, chopped

1 cup well beaten

1 cup celery, chopped

1 cup seedless raisins

1/2 tbsp. salt

1/2 cup milk scalloped

Add hot milk to the beaten eggs

and add to dry mixture. (Will do

two ducks of about 2 1/2 lbs. each.)

2. Apples, Prunes, Raisins

1/2 pound dried prunes

2 tablespoons seeded raisins

2 tablespoons cracker crumbs

1/8 teaspoon salt

1/4 teaspoon sugar

1 egg yolk beaten

1 large apple (sliced)

Pour boiling water over prunes

What Other Papers Are Saying . . .

UNIFORM TEACHING SALARIES . . .

THE NANTON NEWS comes out with the following comments . . . We understand that the commission hearing briefs on the subject of uniform teaching salaries has run into rough weather. Without having heard the arguments on either side, we question whether the uniform salary scale which the government is apparently prepared to promote, is good business from the point of view of the public.

It certainly would put the teachers in a position to strike simultaneously all over the province when demanding raises. At present local differences on salary, and other such matters are settled without discommuning other areas and at the same time clear up local grievances.

From the teachers' point of view, there is the city and some towns means quite a different thing than the same salary in other locations. Personally we have always thought that teachers who teach in out of the way places or endure the discomforts of new, rapidly expanding towns where there are few services, should have more money than those who live in better developed communities. In some cases living in the new communities means higher costs to the cities and general city teachers find themselves paying more in rent and for other such basic items, than teachers in small towns. On the other hand the city teacher secures the advantage of living in a place where additional educational and other services are readily available.

We believe that if the idea of a uniform wage scale is really practical or perhaps, we should say workable. We doubt if it serves the best interest of the community or the teachers.

THE HIGH RIVER TIMES notes that . . . Cardston high school has secured permission from the Minister of Education to introduce a semester system. Time will prove the actual benefit resulting from this educational change, but the students which are expected are worth noting. They include:

(1) A higher level of interest as the student nears the final examinations which are held every five months;

(2) Each student has a more evenly distributed load, so that he may give undivided attention to three or four subjects for five months instead of the usual seven or eight subjects for 10 months;

(3) Grade 12 students who may have failed in some matriculation subjects may complete their program in half a year under this more intensive program instead of spending ten months to carry two or three subjects;

(4) Adults who wish to complete their school education or take training in vocational electives may do so in half a year;

All Grade 12 subjects will be taught in each semester and vocational electives may be taught in alternate semesters. This system accelerates instruction much more rapidly than the yearly program, and it is anticipated as necessary to keep up with the classes.

The first half of the school credits are completed the beginning of February, and the second half in late June. The school day is divided into five 70-minute periods, and at Cardston the range of subjects includes academic, industrial arts, commercial, agricultural and household economics.

THE CAMROSE CANADIAN wonders if . . . the liquor plebiscite is to be argued on the same level as fluoridation . . . The people want an element of decency surrounding the controls of the inevitable liquor traffic. Anyway, up to this moment, all anyone can hope from the plebiscite is an indication of opinion, and the government will interpret this indication in its own sweet way and the people will have very little say in the matter.

UTAH BREEDER BUYS 100 ALBERTA BULLS

A transaction involving an unusually large number of bulls to be sold to one party at private treaty was recently reported by J. Charles Yule of Calgary. Mr. Yule accompanied H. R. Parker of Ogden, Utah, while the latter purchased 100 bulls from Alberta breeders.

The bulls that made up the 100 head shipment were purchased from Mr. Ed Klinck of Didsbury; George McCleavy, Alex Robertson and Walter Bellamy of Carsairs. The above-mentioned of course supplied only part of the shipment. All the bulls were yearlings, and all have gone for export to the U.S.

Squirrel Cage . . .

Peter and Nick decided one night to rob the farmer's orchard. Having only one sack to put their spoils in, they decided to share it afterwards.

After robbing the raid, while passing the church yard, they depended upon a flat-topped tombstone to divide their take, and promptly went through the fence, dropping one big apple on the way.

The village drunk, while passing the church yard, heard the follow-

Believe It Or Not !!!

One for Ripley's book occurred last week when Roy Morgan lost his car keys while on a hunting trip northwest of Sundre. Roy left his car at the Ram River and joined the rest of his party for a 10-day pack horse trip after mountain sheep.

Not wanting to take his car keys for fear of losing them, he hid them under the hood.

On his return to the car several days later he found that a pack rat had made a nest under the hood of the car, and as is their custom, had left a bit of bacon in exchange for the keys.

Roy had to break into the car and cross the ignition wires to get home, minus the keys.

Since returning home, he has heard from Jack Bugsby, one of the party, to say that he had taken his dog out to the spot where the car was parked. The dog soon found the pack rat's nest under a nearby log, dug it out and killed it. Bugsby then searched the nest and found the missing keys.

ing conversation and was too terrified to move.

One for Peter and one for Nick was repeated until all the apples were divided, whereupon Peter said to Nick, "You have that one over the fence Nick and then we'll be even."

DISTRICT NEWS

M.V.B.C. NEWS

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Mrs. Marie Kagey, dean of women, arrived on the campus on Tuesday of last week. Mrs. Taylor and Miss Eby met her in Calgary that evening. It is good to have her with us again.

Students are now on the campus. Four young people have arrived from Washington and others have come from various points. The apartments will be filled this year and the young people are eager to get settled in them. The snow storm retarded work being done on them and those living there have had to be assigned other quarters until that work can be finished.

Mr. Richard Carpenter arrived last Thursday evening. He had the privilege of taking a car to Seattle from his home town in Michigan and thus had a lovely trip west before coming here.

Mrs. Lloyd Stauffer has been doing a great deal of work in the kitchen and basement during the past week. She is efficiently organizing the kitchen while she is doing this winter. We welcome her as a college into our midst and trust that she will feel the warmth of it as she works with us.

President and Mrs. Taylor were visitors in Gahash over the weekend. Mr. Taylor, as vice-district superintendent of the United Methodist Church, attended a communion service and business meeting of the church while there. He also visited his mother who is very ill in hospital there.

The family went to Calgary for their Retreat on Thursday. Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Macdonochie of Parkdale church entertained them for dinner that afternoon. They held their first meeting of the year in their living room and for supper arranged a down-town meeting. After supper they were entertained in the home of Rev. and Mrs. Ray Shantz of Montgomery. They deeply appreciate the kindness of these friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Edgerton, Pasadena, Calif., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Eby and Miss Gladys Eby over the weekend. On Sunday they were in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lorance Eby for dinner. Mr. Eby received his early training as a master plumber with the Llesmer Bros. of DidSBury. He now holds a very responsible position with a firm in Pasadena where he does the fine work of the firm in aluminum fixtures, etc. They will remain only for a few days.

Mr. Abe Sawatzky was on the campus this past week also. He brought some very fine vegetables for the school. Thank you, Abe, for all of your interest in your alma mater.

DIDSBUY INSTITUTE PLANT FALL FOOD SALE

The regular meeting of Didsbury W.I. was held October 1 at the home of Mrs. Joe McDonald. There were ten members and two visitors present. Roll call was answered by presenting a grab bag worth 25c.

The Home and Country was handed to the members. For the bit of fun Mrs. Pross had a contest "What's On Wall's Mind?" with Mrs. Pieper winning.

Miss Helen Howard, district home economist from Olds spoke to the meeting on freezing of foods, containers to use, and how to wrap.

The 10-cent draw was won by Miss Howard. The grab bags were then distributed, containing

CREMONA NEWS

(From Our Own Correspondent)

The flu victims of this district now recovering are Lynn Reid and Beverly Dunphy. Beverly had to return home from school at Red Deer for a seige in bed and Lynn spent several days in hospital.

The snow storm struck this district last Wednesday found most of us unprepared for winter. Most of the harvesting is still to be completed.

Home and School is to meet the first Tuesday evening of the month instead of the first Wednesday. Parents are urged to attend and show their interest in their child.

ROYAL DINNER MENU*BIG SECRET

Prime Minister Diefenbaker won't have time to bag a few prairie ducks for the royal dinner he's giving next Tuesday.

And whether Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip will find dock or the place is not known. Locked away at 24 Sussex Street in Ottawa, the menu is a closely-guarded secret.

About 14 or 16 guests are expected at the prime minister's residence. The guest list has not been made known. But it is expected there will be some official guests and possibly members of the Diefenbaker family.
